

End Time Trends 2012 Footsteps of the Antichrist - 003 and 004

Psalms 66:18 If I perceive sin in my heart, the Lord will not hear me.

Psalms 32:5 I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid. I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the LORD; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin. Selah.

1 John 1:9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all other unrighteousness.

I Cor 11:31 But if we judge ourselves rightly, we should not be judged.

Ephesians 2:8 For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; 9 not as a result of works, so that no one may boast.

Rom. 11:6, "But if it is by grace, it is no longer on the basis of works, otherwise grace is no longer grace."

Gal. 2:21, "I do not nullify the grace of God; for if righteousness comes through the Law, then Christ died needlessly."

Gal. 3:24, "Therefore the Law has become our tutor to lead us to Christ, that we may be justified by faith."

1 Corinthians 3:11 For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.'

John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish, but have eternal life."

“Do not conform yourselves to the standards of this world, but let God transform you inwardly by a complete renovation of your thinking. Then you will be able to know the will of God— what is good and is pleasing to him and is perfect.” Romans 12:2

John 16:10 about righteousness, in that I am going to the Father and you will no longer see me; 11 about judgment, in that the ruler of this world has been judged.

John 12:31 Now is the time for this world to be judged, now the ruler of this world will be expelled.

Romans 16:20 And God, the source of shalom, will soon crush the Adversary under your feet.

The grace of our Lord Yeshua be with you.

2 Corinthians 4:4 They do not come to trust because the god of the 'olam hazeh has blinded their minds...

Eph. 2:1 Also you—being dead in the trespasses and the sins, in which once ye did walk according to the age of this world, according to the ruler of the authority of the air, of the spirit that is now working in the sons of disobedience...

President Woodrow Wilson wrote: "Some of the biggest men in the U. S., in the field of commerce and manufacturing, are afraid of somebody, are afraid of something. They know that there is a power somewhere so organized, so subtle, so watchful, so interlocked, so complete, so pervasive, that they had better not speak above their breath when they speak in condemnation of it." - 1913 which He wrought in the Messiah when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His right hand in the heavenlies, far above all rule and authority and power and mastery, and every name that is named, not only in this age but also in that which is to come.

Ephesians 1:20-23

Ephesians 2:1-3:

"And you were dead in your trespasses and sins, in which you formerly walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, of the spirit that is now working in the sons of disobedience.

Ephesians 3:8

To me, the very least of all the set-apart ones, this favour was given, to bring the Good News of the unsearchable riches of Messiah among the gentiles,

9 and to make all see how this secret is administered, which for ages past has been hidden in Elohim who created all through יהושע Messiah,

10 so that now, through the assembly, the many-sided wisdom of Elohim might be known to the principalities and authorities in the heavenlies,

11 according to the everlasting purpose which He made in Messiah יהושע our Master,

12 in whom we have boldness and access, with reliance, through belief in Him.

Ephesians 6:10-13

For the rest, my brothers, be strong in the Master and in the mightiness of His strength.

Put on the complete armour of Elohim, for you to have power to stand against the schemes of the devil.

Because we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against authorities, against the world-rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual matters of wickedness in the heavenlies.

Because of this, take up the complete armour of Elohim, so that you have power to withstand in the wicked day, and having done all, to stand.

Romans 8:38-39

For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor [Angelic] messengers nor principalities nor powers, neither the present nor the future,

39 nor height nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of Elohim which is in Messiah יהושע our Master.

Col 2:13

And you, being dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, He has made alive together with Him, having forgiven you all trespasses, 14 having blotted out the certificate of debt against us —by the dogmas—which stood against us. And He has taken it out of the way, having nailed it to the stake.

15 Having stripped the principalities and the authorities, He made a public display of them, having prevailed over them in it.

1 Peter 3:22

who [Jesus], having gone into heaven, is at the right hand of Elohim, [Angelic] messengers and authorities and powers having been subjected to Him.

Job 2:2

And יהוה said to Satan, "From where do you come?" And Satan answered יהוה and said, "From diligently searching the earth, and from walking up and down in it."

And יהוה said to Satan, "Have you considered My servant יוֹב, that there is none like him on the earth, a perfect straight man, one who fears Elohim and turns aside from evil? And still he holds fast to his integrity, although you incited Me against him, to destroy him without cause."

And Satan answered יהוה and said, "Skin for skin, and all that a man has he would give for his life!

"But stretch out Your hand, please, and strike his bone and his flesh—if he would not curse You to Your face!"

And יהוה said to Satan, "See, he is in your hand, only his life."

2 Cor 4:4

in whom the mighty one of this age has blinded the minds of the unbelieving, so that the enlightening of the Good News of the esteem of Messiah, who is the likeness of Elohim, does not shine on them.

Col 1:13-15

who has delivered us from the authority of darkness and transferred us into the reign of the Son of His love,

14 in whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins,

15 who is the likeness of the invisible Elohim, the first-born of all creation

"But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived." - 2 Timothy 3:13, KJV

The famous Lord Beaconsfield (Disraeli) once said:
"Elected governments seldom govern" and "the world is governed by very different personages from what is imagined by those who are not behind the scenes."

"We shall have world government whether or not you like it, by conquest or consent." CFR member James Warburg, speaking to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, February 1, 1950.

New York city Mayor John F. Hylan said in a speech on March 26: "...the real menace of our republic is this invisible government which like a giant octopus sprawls its slimy length over city, state and nation. Like the octopus of real life, it operates under cover of self-created screen. It seizes in its long and powerful tentacles our executive officers, our legislative bodies, our schools, our courts, our newspapers and every agency created for the public protection." - 1922

Antichrist

The brief prophecy, “antichrist shall come,” 1 John 2:18 , has taken hold of the imagination of so many that the name antichrist is more widely known than other Bible names given to a wicked being who darkens the horizon in the end time. These include such expressions as the man of sin, the son of perdition, and that wicked one, 2 Thess. 2:3–8; the wicked king, Dan. 7:24, 25; the king of fierce countenance, Dan. 8:23–25; and the beast from the sea, Rev. 13:1–10.

If the word antichrist is taken to mean one who is against Christ, these names belong to him, but if the word means a false Christ, then it properly applies to the beast from the earth or the land, Rev. 13:11–18 , who is the false prophet of Rev. 16:13; 19:20; 20:10.

The personal antichrist must be distinguished from the many antichrists of 1 John 2:18; 2 John 7; from those who have the spirit of antichrist, 1 John 4:3 , and from the false Christs who are to deceive the people of Israel in the latter days, Matt. 24:24; John 5:43.

A considerable body of Scripture is devoted to this evil being.

The beast king is given power over all nations for only three and a half years, Rev. 13:5.

He will perish in the lake of fire, Rev. 19:20; 20:10.

3. Paul's Foreview

Writing to the Thessalonians, Paul says—

“Let no man deceive you by any means; for ‘that day’ (the Day of the Lord) shall not come except there come a ‘falling away first,’ and that ‘MAN OF SIN’ be revealed, the ‘Son of Perdition,’ who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he As God sitteth in the Temple of God (the rebuilt Temple at Jerusalem), showing himself that he is God.... For the ‘MYSTERY OF INIQUITY’ doth already work (in Paul’s day); only He (the Holy Spirit) who now letteth (restraineth R. V.) will let (restrain), until He be taken out of the way. And then shall ‘THAT WICKED’ be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit (breath) of His mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness (manifestation R. V.) of His Coming.

Even him, whose coming is after the 'working of Satan' with all 'power' and 'signs' and 'lying wonders,' and with all 'deceivableness of unrighteousness' in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved." 2 Thess. 2:3–10.

In the American Standard Edition the Antichrist is called the "Mystery of Lawlessness," or the "Lawless One." As such he is not the "cause" of "Lawlessness," or the "Apostasy;" he is the "result" or "fruit" of it for he will arise out of the seething cauldron of "Lawlessness" that is now becoming more pronounced and manifest in the world.

4. John's Foreview

On the Isle of Patmos the Apostle John had his vision of the Antichrist.

“And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a Beast rise up out of the sea (Mediterranean Sea), having ‘Seven Heads’ and ‘Ten Horns’ and upon his heads the ‘name of blasphemy.’ And the Beast which I saw was like unto a Leopard, and his ‘feet’ were as the feet of a Bear, and his ‘mouth’ as the mouth of a Lion; and THE DRAGON gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority. And I saw one of his heads as it were ‘wounded to death;’ and his deadly wound ‘was healed;’ and all the world wondered after THE BEAST.”

“And they worshipped THE DRAGON which gave power unto the Beast; and they worshipped THE BEAST, saying, Who is like unto the Beast? Who is able to make war with him? And there was given unto him A Mouth Speaking Great Things and Blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue Forty and Two Months. And he opened his mouth In Blasphemy Against God, to Blaspheme His Name, and His Tabernacle and Them That Dwell in Heaven. And it was given unto him to make War With the Saints (not the saints of the Church; they were already in glory) and to overcome them; and Power Was Given Him Over All Kindreds and Tongues and Nations. And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the Book of Life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.” Rev. 13:1–8.

It is clear from the similarity of the conduct of Isaiah's "Lucifer," of Daniel's "Little Horn," of Paul's "Man of Sin," and of John's "Beast," and that Daniel's "Little Horn" and John's "Beast" are to continue for the same length of time—"Forty and Two Months," or 3½ years, and that Isaiah's "Lucifer," Daniel's "Little Horn," Paul's "Man of Sin" and John's "Beast" are all to be destroyed in the same manner at Christ's Second Coming, that they all prefigure the same "Evil Power," which is after the "Working of Satan," and which John in 1 John 2:18 calls THE ANTICHRIST.

III. His Character

He will be a “composite” man.

One who embraces in his character the abilities and powers of Nebuchadnezzar, Xerxes, Alexander the Great and Caesar Augustus.

He will have the marvellous gift of attracting unregenerate men, and the irresistible fascination of his personality, his versatile attainments, superhuman wisdom, great administrative and executive ability, along with his powers as a consummate flatterer, a brilliant diplomatist, a superb strategist, will make him the most conspicuous and prominent of men.

All these gifts will be conferred on him by Satan, whose tool he will be, and who will thus make him the—

SUPERMAN.

He will pose as a great humanitarian, the friend of men, and the especial friend of the Jewish race, whom he will persuade that he has come to usher in the "Golden Age" as pictured by the prophets, and who will receive him as their Messiah.

He will intoxicate men with a strong delusion and his never varying success.

And when he shall be slain and rise again he will have lost none of these powers, but will be in addition the embodiment of all kinds of wickedness and blasphemy.

“He shall speak great words against the Most High, and shall wear out the saints of the Most High, and think to change times and laws.” Dan. 7:25.

“He shall also stand up against the ‘Prince of Princes’” (Jesus). Dan. 8:25.

“He shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of Gods.”
Dan. 11:36.

“Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he AS GOD sitteth in the Temple of God (at Jerusalem) showing himself that he IS GOD ... whose coming is after the Working of Satan with all Power and Signs and Lying Wonders.” 2 Thess. 2:3–9.

There has never as yet appeared on this earth a person who answers the description given in the above Scriptures.

Such a character is almost inconceivable.

No writer would have invented such a character.

IV. His Reign

He shall reign for seven years, or during the whole of Daniel's "Seventieth Week."

"And he shall confirm the Covenant with many for ONE WEEK (Daniel's Seventieth week) and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease." Dan. 9:27.

After the Church has been caught out the Jews will be gathered back to their own land unconverted.

About this time ten of the Nations occupying the territory of the old Roman Empire will enter into a Federation.

Among the Ten Kings of those nations will arise the Antichrist. He will soon prove himself to be a Great Ruler and will be made PRESIDENT.

The Government will be a Democratic Monarchy.

The President will make a “Covenant” with the Jewish people.

It may be a Covenant restoring to them their own land. Whatever its character, the Prophet Isaiah speaks of it as a “Covenant With Death and Hell.” Isa. 28:15.

For 3½ years the President of the Federation will keep the Covenant.

Then he will break it.

For the balance of his reign, 3½ years, he will cause an awful persecution of the Jews, called “The Great Tribulation.”

It will not, however, be limited to them, for we read in Rev. 13:7, 8, that he shall be given power

“Over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations. And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the Book of Life.”

V. His Doom

At the end of the seven years the allied armies of the Ten Federated Nations will gather together in the Valley of Megiddo, north of Jerusalem, to besiege that city.
Zech. 14:2.

The Lord will pour upon the “House of David” (Israel), and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the “spirit of grace and supplication” (Zech. 12:10).

Then the Lord, at the head of the “armies of Heaven,” will come to their rescue (Rev. 19:11–16), and the Jews will see Christ descend upon the Mt. of Olives (Zech. 14:4) and the Beast (Antichrist) and the kings of the earth, and their armies will gather together to make war against the Lord, and the Beast and the False Prophet will be taken and cast alive into the “Lake of Fire” and the remnant of those armies shall be slain with the sword of Him who sits upon the “White Horse,” and the fowls of the air will be summoned unto the “Supper of the Great God” and shall feed on the flesh of kings, and captains, and of mighty men. Rev. 19:17–21.

21 Facts about the Coming Antichrist

In order to evaluate the events that will occur during the "Footsteps of Antichrist" era, it is necessary to have an understanding of what the Scriptures say concerning him, so we may interpret events in relation to his description and characteristics:

1. He will be an intellectual genius. Dan. 8:23
Dan. 11:36
2. He will be an oratorical genius. Dan. 11:36
3. He will be a political genius. Rev. 17:11-12
4. He will be a commercial genius. Dan. 11:43; Rev. 13:16-17

5. He will be a military genius.

Rev. 6:2; 13:2

6. He will be a religious genius. - 2 Thess. 2:4; Rev. 13:8

7. He will begin by controlling the Western power block.

Rev. 17:12

8. He will make a seven-year covenant with Israel but will break it after three and a half years. Dan. 9:27

9. He will attempt to destroy all of Israel. Rev. 12
10. He will destroy the false religious system so that he may rule unhindered.
Rev. 17:16-17
11. He will set himself up as God. Dan. 11:36-37; 2 Thess. 2:4, 11; Rev. 13:5
12. He will briefly rule over all nations.
Ps. 2; Dan. 11:36; Rev. 13:16

13. He will be utterly crushed by the Lord Jesus Christ at the Battle of Armageddon. Rev. 19
14. He will be the first creature thrown into the lake of fire. Rev. 19:20
15. He will be a master of deceit. 2 Thess. 2:10
16. He will profane the temple.
Matt. 24:15

17. He will be energized by Satan himself. Rev. 13:2
18. He will do everything according to his own selfish will. Dan. 11:36
19. He will not regard the God of his fathers. Dan. 11:37
20. He will not have the desire of women. Dan. 11:37
21. His god will be the god of power. Dan. 11:38

Footsteps of the Antichrist

Alexander hated being summoned to the Archon Council Meeting - it always meant big trouble for someone on his committee - and it might just be him.

His committee, which had a relatively simple and, to his thinking, a minor role, in developing the publicity for the paradigm shift in the public's thinking about Global Warming, had gone for years without a summons to a higher committee or council. But ever since the University of East Anglia Climatic Research Unit E-mail Scandal and the Penn State investigation of Michael Mann, it seemed that nothing they did could please the Committee of 300 - - and apparently not the ARCHONS!

The Committee of 300 meetings were usually benign enough, for the most part, just a gathering of powerful but mostly unknown men from the Royal Institute for International Affairs (RIIA), the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR), the Bilderbergers, the Trilateral Commission, the Olympians, the Round Table, the Milner Group and a half dozen more, all working together to coordinate the activities of these groups and smaller groups, like his, in creating an equitable world - "equitable distribution of health, wealth and happiness," as they liked to say when facing some "negative publicity," i.e., accusations of "conspiracy" based on analysis of their activities. As one of his fellow committeemen said, "One man's Education is another man's Propaganda and another man's Conspiracy."

He knew they were out to educate - to put the brakes on a deadly slide into Climate Catastrophe - why so many people couldn't see it, and why so many didn't seem to even care, was baffling to him; in fact so baffling he and his colleagues felt compelled to continually 'up the ante', with more audacious claims - not really to be deceptive, but to amplify the dangers we face. His committee was constantly being fed all the latest data and reports, and, while they were clearly convincing to them, it seemed that no matter how well written the press releases and how successful they were in getting the best spots on the nightly news and prime segments on the weekend shows like 60 Minutes, they couldn't get to what they called the tipping point.

He thought, "We believed that if we could just get to that tipping point, we would have it made, and all we'd have to do after that was feed the media with the Climate Change (our recent name change attempt to recover momentum) story of the week, and rest on our laurels - maybe even getting a 'promotion' to one of the bigger committees.

Not that he wanted to move up to the '300' - they seemed to be rich and powerful, but they exuded an undercurrent of fear - especially when they had an Archon Council appointment. He dreaded the 'Prep' meetings with the 300, especially prepping for the Archon Council. They were demanding enough before their regular 'in-house' meetings, but if they had a scheduled meeting with some un-named higher-up committee or council, it became very tense, and before an Archon Council meeting - even very angry. It was one of these "Prep Meetings" he was traveling to, today.

It was never spoken out loud, but the Archons were known to be 'above' everyone - no matter what the committee affiliation - in their intelligence, power and commitment to the "cause." Most of the members of the lower committees had no idea of the "cause," behind all these committees and councils, and he wasn't certain that he'd completely figured it out, but he, and some others on his committee, had researched the "conspiracy" sites on the internet and were amused that they "identified" them as part of the "New World Order" conspiracy.

Well, if equality throughout the world was going to be the "New World Order", they joked, we were happy to be a part of it.

"I mean, how could anyone be opposed to fairness and the redistribution of wealth," he thought? "I had grown up in a modest home in Western Europe, but even with my modest upbringing I had a strong sense of the poverty of the unfortunate in my own country; more so the poverty of those in the undeveloped countries; and even in the USA, universally acknowledged as the most wealthy nation on earth, and even the USA with its unfettered capitalism, had unbelievable poverty. There was no disputing the fact that the world was totally unfair! How anyone - and the Conservatives of the world were the worst - could remain blinded to the realities of poverty and the resultant health, educational and cultural issues is beyond me and my friends."

Fortunately, the Committee of 300 had all of these issues in their purview, and all the members of various committees and foundations he had met at forums and other gatherings were as focused on their "areas of concern" (AOC's as he referred to them) as he and his committee were with theirs. Every time he attended a new conference or forum he was amazed at how many issues were being addressed - Education, Energy, Culture, Space Exploration, Healthcare, Religion, and, of course, his own baby - Climate Change.

There were other concerns he had been introduced to at these various meetings - issues that he had never even imagined to be so important in the world - so it was good that men smarter than he were in charge, he thought - men like the Committee of 300. That realization jolted him back to the reality of the moment, and the incongruity of secret meetings to discuss things they promoted so publicly.

He, and other members of his committee had been informed that they were to attend the Archon Council meeting to be held in Chicago in May where they were holding a meeting of the G8 - the giants of the World's Economy, for a seemingly unrelated, and unpublicized meeting of the Archon Council. But, it always was like that - every "upper-level" meeting that he attended, even some of his own world-wide committee meetings, were held secretly at the locations of other, publicly announced, meetings. Perhaps it was the need for security, or to save on travel time or expense for the attendees of both meetings. He knew that Nato held their meetings with the G8 in 2011, and were going to do so again this year, so it made sense that it was all about the attendee's convenience.

At first he didn't understand the secrecy, but as time went on he had realized that there were those who were opposed to the progress they were working to bring to the world - evil people - people who were blinded by their 'Religious Cult beliefs,' some, like his own 'Baptist' cousins in the USA, were convinced that he, himself, was a part of some "conspiracy," (there was that word again) and was "deceived" into trying to create a better world - and that it was against the plan of God - how deceived were they, to think that "God", even if he existed, could be opposed to creating a better world for everyone! Their god was such an oxymoron! No way he could ever be convinced to fall for that line of crap - he KNEW he was working to create a better world!

Knowing how foolish people could be when blinded by religion, and aware of the violent nature of these religious fanatics, he realized the wisdom of keeping things as secret as possible. No sense giving these right-wing religious fanatics and their Tea Party political army any opportunities to politicize, disparage, and - one of their favorite attacks - demonize - the hard work he and other wise-minded people were bringing to a needy world. That some were not able to see the need and the dedication of those who sacrifice to fulfill that need could only be explained by their zombie-like adherence to their religious belief.

Frustrated at the thought of the recent successes of the regressives in his own Climate Change backyard - the phony "Climate-gate" propaganda - he opened his laptop and went to his encrypted email folder to read the Archon Council meeting announcement (it's never an invitation) and the agenda. Some of the names he recognized from the previous conferences and meetings. He searched over the attachments to see what background material had been included for everyone to familiarize themselves with before arriving.

He read the introduction to the World Economic Forum (WEF) (Their motto - "commitment to improving the state of the world.") Global Risks 2012

The WEF's Global Risk Report warns of economic imbalances and social inequality, and how these risks could "revert the gains of globalization"...

The linked Global Risks 2012 Video presents the findings of a survey of 469 experts and industry leaders who worry that the world's institutions are ill-equipped to cope with today's interconnected, rapidly evolving risks. The findings of the survey fed into an analysis of three major risk cases: Seeds of Dystopia, Unsafe Safeguards and the Dark Side of Connectivity.

The intro dutifully noted: "This film is not authorized nor endorsed by the president, the First Lady or the White House."

"The Global Risks 2012 Report analyzes the top risks in five categories – economic, environmental, geopolitical, societal and technological. Structured on a 10-year outlook, the survey captured the perceived impact, likelihood and interconnectedness of 50 prevalent global risks."

He watched the video...

Next, he read the article that may have precipitated this "summons" to the Archon Council; one he helped write for one of the designated spokesman, Dr. Shearman from the IPCC, who is Emeritus Professor of Medicine, University of Adelaide and the Assessor for the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change's Third Assessment Report and the Fourth Assessment Report, who said, "Government in the future will be based upon . . . a supreme office of the biosphere. The office will comprise specially trained philosopher/ecologists. These guardians will either rule themselves or advise an authoritarian government of policies based on their ecological training and philosophical sensitivities. These guardians will be specially trained for the task."

In his writings Shearman says that “authoritarianism is the natural state of humanity” and that in order to save the planet from man-made climate change, an “elite warrior leadership” needs to be formed that will “battle for the future of the earth”.

Part of this battle involves replacing traditional religions like Christianity and Islam with a new green religion that would fit better with an authoritarian government.

“It is not impossible that from the green movement and aspects of the new age movement a religious alternative to Christianity and Islam will emerge,” writes Spearman. “And it is not too difficult to imagine what shape this new religion could take. One would require a transcendent God who could punish and reward – because humans seem to need a carrot and a stick.”

Spearman's "transcendent God" is the God of the state, punishing the enslaved citizen for every eco-infraction under this new green totalitarianism.

Shearman advocates the set up of specialized re-education centers where eco-warriors are trained to become part of a green army of enforcers. "Chapter 9 will describe in more detail how we might begin the process of constructing such real universities to train the ecowarriors to do battle against the enemies of life. We must accomplish this education with the same dedication used to train its warriors. As in Sparta, these natural elites will be especially trained from childhood to meet the challenging problems of our times," writes Spearman.

Perhaps", thought Alexander, he went too far - revealed too much detail - as many blogs pointed out the facts of the article, but added overzealous and biased analysis, such as:

"He openly advocates the contrived manufacturing of a new God and a new religion so that the masses of enslaved citizens under his envisaged eco-autocracy would be to coerced to comply as part of some hideous global brainwashing program."

IPCC Professor Calls For “Elite Warrior Leadership” To Rule Over Eco-Dictatorship

<http://www.prisonplanet.com/ipcc-professor-calls-for-elite-warrior-leadership-to-rule-over-eco-dictatorship.html>

Professor David Shearman and Paul Joseph Watson
Prominent United Nations scientists says new green religion should replace traditional faiths as part of shift towards authoritarian tyranny.

As one blogger at prisonplanet.com said, “I could go on quoting from the book, but I’m sure you’ve already got the gist of what’s being proposed here: Global warming presents such a massive and immediate danger that democracy no longer cuts it, and an authoritarian ecological government of ‘natural elites’ will have to be found to replace it, as well as a new green religion to help provide ‘social glue for the masses’.” As we have documented, Shearman is not alone in his brazen call for freedom to be abolished and replaced by an authoritarian green tyranny. Indeed, this is a common cause embraced by a multitude of influential climate change activists and scientists.

“Posted on a blog somewhere, such a plan would probably elicit a visit from the anti-terrorist division of the police,” writes Haunting The Library blog.

“But the fact that it comes from a professor at a major university, who works for the IPCC and was written at the behest of a serious academic institute, founded by Act of Congress, means that the author need not be afraid. But we should be.”

His thoughts returned to his Prep Meeting with the Committee of 300. He had heard that the Committee of 300 was established with the co-operation of the US Government, the British Royal family, various International Banks, Insurance Companies, NATO, International Court of Justice (ICJ) and others, with a view to implement the agenda for the establishment of a One World Government, like the Shearman Report advocated, to which the name 'New World Order' had been given. It was this "One World Government" -- 'New World Order' that moved the "Regressives" of the world to cry "conspiracy!"

One Conspiracy Theorist - a former Intelligence Agent, who had obviously lost his mind - a Dr. Coleman - tells the world that the conspiracy of the various organizations—the 'spin-offs' of the Committee of 300—is to attack major religions i.e., Islam and Christianity and it aims at the destruction of millions of people (referred to by the Committee of 300 as the 'surplus population') and the removal of any leader who dared to stand in the way of the Committee's global planning to achieve the objectives.

It amazed him that human beings could take such good goals and plans and twist them into something to fear and resist.

At least Coleman may be right about one thing, Alexander thought - "the Grand total of the organizations and groups related to the Committee of 300 comes to 725 organisations and individuals." He didn't know about anywhere near 725, but he knew he was always learning about new ones at every gathering he attended, he mused.

He knew that Coleman has described the Conspirators' Hierarchy with the help of an inverted Hierarchy tree. "The Committee of 300 is the root from which Organizations, Societies, Associations, Clubs, Groups, Institutes, Foundations, Trusts, Companies, Banks, Agencies, Parties, Lodges, Houses, Families and individuals are shown as branching at different levels." "Well, of course," Andrew thought, "any "organization" is going to have an organized structure, and when the best and brightest in the world work together to bring about a new world utopia, they are going to include many different groups, and require a coordinating committee or council. If that's a conspiracy, what isn't?"

Coleman continued his simplistic "conspiracy theory" by saying that "Almost always the members of the Committee of 300, whether groups or individuals, keep themselves and their work secret. They always work in a chain of command, which ends at the Committee of 300, which may be viewed as the Supreme Commander. "

"Well, duh," Alexander thought, "with quacks like you out there trying to destroy everything good that the groups attempt, why shouldn't they try to fly under the radar?"

Besides, the spokesman were frequently laying out the plans for everyone to see...
